MEDICINAL

If a man is going to fight he wants to be well. He wants to be strong, steady, nervous, vigorous--able to take and give punishment. One of Roosevelt's Rough Riders actually starved to death because his digestive system wasn't strong enough to extract the nutriment from food that kept his comrades strong and well and in top fighting trim.

The soldier isn't the only one who fights. Business men, clerks, engineers, laborers, all have a fight on their hands. All have to fight for a living. The weak go to the wall. What about you?

Is your blood all right? Do you feel right? Are you losing flesh? Do you run down? Do you sleep well? Do you trouble with your stomach? Tired all the time? If you want to be strong, healthy, and well, you need Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It makes men strong. It keeps the digestive system right up to concert pitch. It tones the stomach, stimulates the liver, strengthens the nerves, cures the blood--makes a new man of you. Puts snap and vim and endurance into you.

A. D. Weller, Esq., of Pensacola, Escambia Co., Fla. (Box 444), writes: "I have taken eight bottles of the Golden Medical Discovery, and must say that I am transformed from a weakling into a man. Four months ago I did not think I could do anything. Now I can do anything. I am now ready for the 'dons'."

For Over Fifty Years
ASOLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY--Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, keeps the mouth moist, cures wind, colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind. See the name on the wrapper.

"I had bronchitis every winter for years, and no medicine gave me permanent relief. I began to take One Minute Cough Cure. I know it is the best cough medicine made." Says J. Kountz, Corry, Pa. It quickly cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, grippe and throat and lung troubles. It is the children's favorite remedy. Cures quickly.

ARNOLD'S BROMO-CELERY. Try this celebrated remedy for Headaches, Neuralgia, Rheumatism. 10 cents.

FLOUR

The Lees of Virginia.

—the famous "Light Horse Harry" Lee—Gen. Robt. E. Lee, and our own "Frog" Lee, were all brought up on bread made of WINTER WHEAT flour.

What was good for such worthy sons of old Virginia is surely good for the present generation.

THE NEW SOUTH FLOUR is milled of choice winter wheat, grown on southern soil.

MR. BRYAN IN RICHMOND.

The entrance of Hon. William Jennings Bryan upon his southern tour has been all that the most exacting could desire. His reception in Richmond was most cordial. Mr. Bryan's address at the Academy of Music in that city yesterday afternoon was listened to by all that could be crowded in that building. Long before the time for the meeting to be called to order the house was filled, and when the speaker of the occasion entered the hall there was no available space left anywhere. Many were turned away, and the thousands who desired to attend, knowing the limited accommodation, did not apply for admission. This was Mr. Bryan's first speech to Richmond since September 13, 1896, when he made one at the Auditorium, where probably 10,000 persons heard him. The audience at the Academy included the most influential democratic leaders in the State. Two of the boxes were occupied by Governor Eyer, Lieutenant-Governor Echols and their families, while members of the legislature were assigned to other boxes and the loges.

The meeting was called to order by Senator Barksdale, and Speaker Saunders, of Franklin county, presented Mr. Bryan to the audience. Mr. Bryan's advance to the front part of the platform was the signal for a great outburst of applause and other demonstrations of pleasure. The men cheered, and the ladies, of whom there were a large number present, waved their handkerchiefs at the Nebraska orator.

After thanking the Legislature of Virginia for the invitation to make this address Mr. Bryan began his speech. He paid a high tribute to Senator Daniel. In speaking of him he referred to "Our great Daniel, our leader in the Chicago convention," "Virginia," he said, "whether we commence at the beginning or view the present time, is always at the front." Continuing in this line Mr. Bryan spoke in eulogistic terms of General Robert E. Lee, which brought forth deafening applause, as did also his reference to Fitzhugh Lee and the part he played in the trouble with Spain. This reference probably provoked more applause than anything Mr. Bryan said during his address.

He said he did not know enough about localities to say whether there were any there today who left the democrats in 1896. "Need I say," added the speaker, "that I want also to tell you that I do not believe God made the farmer to do the thinking for the rest of the people, nor did he make the laborer to do the thinking for the rest of the people. I do not believe he made any class to do the thinking for all the rest."

"While I have faith in the patriotism of the farmer, I would not turn over all legislation to him. While I have faith in the patriotism of the laborer, I would not turn over all legislation to him."

The same thing he said of the merchant and the professions.

Mr. Bryan then proceeded to discuss the income tax, the currency and trust questions and the Philippine problem along the lines of previous speeches. His expression of the hope that the British would never get to Ladysmith and his discussion of trusts evoked much applause. His denunciation of the administration's policy respecting the Philippines was also greatly applauded.

The committee, composed of Senators Barksdale and Glass and Delegates Jones, E. R. and Pettit, reached Richmond at 3:40 a. m., accompanied by Mr. Bryan and a number of friends from Washington. At Ashland and one or two other points Mr. Bryan went out on the platform of his car, but made no speech. The party was driven to the Jefferson Hotel, where Mr. Bryan was quartered during his stay. At 10 o'clock he visited the two houses of the bodies Assembly. In each of the bodies a 10 minutes' recess was taken, and Mr. Bryan was introduced to the members by Senator Barksdale. To each he had a pleasant and appropriate word to say. There were great crowds in the lobbies of each house to see and hear the Nebraskaan.

In reply to repeated cries for him to speak, Mr. Bryan finally said: "The programme does not provide for a speech at this time. I will speak at length this afternoon. I only want to become personally acquainted with the gentlemen and to pay my respects to the Governor. I always love to come to Virginia. I came within one of being a Virginian myself. My grandfather was a Virginian, being born in Culpeper county, and when I come to Virginia I am reminded of the great men the State has given the country."

In an interview Mr. Bryan said he thought the democratic party was in better fighting trim than he had seen it in years. He said the battle of 1900 would be fought on three issues--money, imperialism and trusts--but he would not say which one would be brought more prominently to the front. He had found the situation in the north and east much improved. Many good democrats, he said, were coming back to the party and a number of republicans would refuse to support the old party on account of its position on expansion.

Yesterday evening Mr. Bryan was dined by Mr. J. Taylor Elyson, the chairman of the State committee and a candidate for the governorship. He was met at dinner by all of the legislative committee of arrangements, prominent members of the General Assembly and the other three aspirants for the governorship and other prominent democrats.

Last night Mr. Bryan held a reception at the Jefferson Hotel, where a great number of people called to see him.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Ely's Cream Balm, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." The supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. The miracle working medicine is a godsend to people, sickly, rundown or ailing. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

The best Medicine for Rheumatism. "I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Expeller," writes Mr. W. H. St. Johnston, Hornsby, Pa. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for several years and have tried remedies without number, but Pain Expeller is the best medicine I have got hold of." One application relieves the pain. For sale by all druggists.

CHRONIC NASAL CATARRH poisons every breath that is drawn into the lungs. There is procurable from any druggist the remedy for the cure of this trouble. A small quantity of Ely's Cream Balm placed into the nostrils covers over an inflamed and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation, cleanses, heals and cures. A cold in the head vanishes immediately. Sold by druggists or will be mailed for 50 cents by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York.

Beauty is Blood Deep. Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathars, clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin today to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sticky bilious complexion by taking Cascarets--beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed. 10c 25c 50c.

Geo. Barbe, Mendota, Va., says: "Nothing did me so much good as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One dose relieved me; a few bottles cured me. It digests what you eat and always cures dyspepsia."
